TV TALK

In the spring a young man's fancy, but TV shows are fancier and the spectacular planned for KIRO-TV, Channel 7, and KVOS-TV, Channel 12, to be seen at 6.30 p.m. March 30, is fancier than most.

The lineup of talent includes the dance team of Marge and Gower Champion, French singer Genevieve—who has been a semi-regular on the Jack Parr Show—and Herb Shriner.

The program will originate in New York, with segments picked up from throughout the United States.

Gimmicks lined up already for the show are a dance number by the Champions at the foot of San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge, a song by Genevieve in a Louisiana bayou and Shriner chewing the fat with local residents in a general store in a small Indiana town.

The show will take over from regularly scheduled shows for the one night only.

"Put more fun in your life—try dancing."

Sunday's Highlights

3.00 p.m.—Defence Against Tomorrow has top Canadian reporters interviewing military and political figures in Ottawa and Washington on the issues behind the abandonment of the Avro Arrow jet plane program—2 and 6; Tactic debuts with the first of six weekly half-hour programs aimed to disseminate information about cancer. Alfred Hitchcock, Hanya Holm, William Shatner and Diana van de Vlis are guests this week—4.

These panels have defects, but with a little care you can do a nice job. Ideal for lining basements, rumpus rooms, backing for cupboards, etc. Will take a beautiful smooth paint finish. If price is a real factor, you should be interested.
FENCING
Reasons for a fence are varied. It may be to keep children or pets in or out, for back yard privacy, or as a background for flowers or vines. When you decide just what you want your fence to do, then you know whether to build it sturdy or light, solid or open. We have many designs to choose from and the cost in most cases is surprisingly low.
Economy fence:
50 feet of picket fencing
